Definitely, I will let the office know that LA Corps is coming by. In case no one is there, the bags are in the space between the refrigerator and the wall near the front door of the office.

By the way, thank you so much for having the BigBelly trash containers cleaned. They look gorgeous!

Here are some before and after pictures of last week's progress. Pedro used a bottle of the solution on 4 bbs. He will continue Thursday removing the graffiti.
